

Avaya Solutions for the Financial Industry

Build loyalty while increasing profitability

AVAYA
The Power of We™

KNOW YOUR CUSTOMER—AND INCREASE YOUR PROFITABILITY

Helping you deliver personalized customer experiences every day

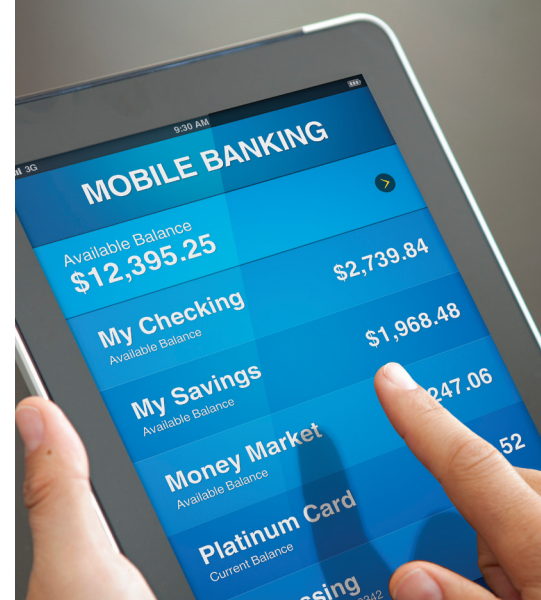

What do today's financial services customers want?

Today, financial services providers face new challenges based on increasing economic and competitive pressures and customers' changing expectations. Your customers want to interact with your company on their own terms, schedules, and devices. They want self-service options for faster service—with the ability to reach a real person immediately if they need additional assistance. They want to know that their personal data is safe and secure, but easily accessible when they need it.

Most of all, they want you to know who they are and what they need—so that every interaction can become a personalized experience across all communications channels.

Avaya communications solutions can give you a competitive edge.

Whatever type of financial services you provide, Avaya's customized, integrated, next-gen communications solutions can help you provide each customer with a personalized, collaborative experience every time, on any device—in ways that help drive customer loyalty while being efficient and cost-effective for your business.
